* Editor's Note: Ordinance No. 494 contained herein was adopted by Initiative Election held on December 8, 1987. Measure L, passed by the voters on November 8, 1994 amended Section 9.70.132 to allow city council to amend Ordinance No. 494 (Chapter 9.70) after public hearing before the rent appeals board and a four/fifths vote of the city council.

Ordinance No. 495 repealed the provisions of Ordinance No. 487 which added Chapter 9.68, entitled Mobile Home Space Rent Adjustment and Registration, to the Code.

9.70.010 Findings and purpose.

The purpose of this chapter is to alleviate the hardship of unreasonable rent increases while still assuring owners' right to a fair return.

- A. The city council finds the following conclusions to be true and correct:
 1. In Rohnert Park, there are five mobile home parks containing one thousand three hundred seventeen spaces, of which one thousand three hundred nine spaces are available for rental to mobile home coach owners (in 1995).
 2. Mobile homes provide an important form of affordable housing for a substantial number of Rohnert Park residents.

3. The majority of mobile home park home-owners/residents are age fifty-five or older.
4. The majority of mobile home park homeowners/residents own the mobile homes which they occupy and many of these homeowners/residents typically have substantial loan payments to meet in addition to rent payments.
5. The Rohnert Park General Plan recommends that the city maintain and preserve its existing stock of affordable housing of which mobile home park spaces are typically an example.
6. Studies undertaken in surrounding areas have shown that typical moving costs for mobile homes from one mobile home park to another (if vacant spaces could be located) range from approximately five thousand dollars to nine thousand dollars, depending upon the size of the mobile home. In many instances, removal requires a separation of the mobile home unit from appurtenances which have been made permanent, thus creating severe damage and depreciation in value to the mobile home.
7. Mobile homes and manufactured housing have represented an affordable form of shelter to citizens of Rohnert Park with modest incomes. Because mobile homes are often owned by senior citizens, persons on fixed incomes, and persons of low and moderate income, space rent increases can have a significant impact on these families.
8. The need for effective and fair mobile home park space rent stabilization continues to exist in Rohnert Park.
9. It would be desirable to provide prospective homeowners/residents of mobile home coaches with an option to choose between a long-term lease and a periodic tenancy of less than one year in duration. Such an option furthers a legitimate governmental objective and is not in conflict with or preempted by state law.
10. On average, several mobile home coaches are sold or offered for sale each year in Rohnert Park. It would be highly desirable to provide vacancy control in the rent stabilization program as hereunder provided.
11. The city further finds that this article is necessary to preserve public health, welfare, and safety.

12. There exist substantial differences in space rents within given mobile home parks in Rohnert Park.

B. The purpose of this chapter is to stabilize the rate of mobile home park space rental in order to:

1. Prevent exploitation of a shortage of vacant mobile home park spaces should it occur;
2. Prevent excessive and unreasonable mobile home park space rent increases while still assuring park owners' right to a fair return;
3. Provide a process for ensuring mobile home park owners a fair, just and reasonable rate of return on their parks in cases where the guaranteed annual space rent increase provided by this chapter proves insufficient.
4. Assist in protecting affordable housing to help provide a variety of housing types within a range of costs affordable to the low and very low income households.
5. Rectify the disparity of bargaining power which exists between mobile home park home-owners/residents and/or prospective homeowners/ residents and mobile home park owners.

(Ord. 622 § 2, 1996: Ord. 607, 1995: Ord. 599 § 3, 1994: Ord. 494 § 3, 1987)

If there was no rent in effect on December 1, 1985, the base rent shall be the rent in effect the last time the space was rented prior to December 1, 1985 adjusted by the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index (CPI) between the last date of rental and December 1, 1985.

C. Posting. As soon as the landlord is aware of the maximum allowable rent, the landlord shall post it for each space, in a prominent place in or about the affected controlled spaces. The board may require that other information it deems relevant also be posted. (Ord. 494 § 4, 1987)

9.70.042 Vacancy control.

A park owner is prohibited from raising rent upon re-rental or re-lease of a mobile home on-site to a prospective homeowner/resident or current homeowner/resident. Mobile home spaces that are "new construction" as defined in Civil Code section 798.7 are exempted in accordance with Civil Code section 798.45. (Ord. 612 § 3, 1996)

Such a person cannot be denied the option of a tenancy of twelve months or less in duration. The park owner/management shall inform the prospective homeowner of their options under this clause. (Ord. 612 § 3, 1996)

On or after February 1st of each year, the maximum allowable rent for a rental space may be increased without application to the board in an amount not to exceed one-half of one percent less than one hundred percent of the increase in the CPI during the preceding twelve months. Such increase shall be equal to one-half of one percent less than the percentage increase in the CPI last reported as of September of the prior year and the month of September of the current year.

Such increase shall be annually calculated by the board. The amount of such permitted increase shall be rounded to the nearest one-tenth of one percent. In the event that the CPI decreases, no increase or decrease in rents shall be authorized pursuant to this section.

Said increase shall be annually calculated by the board. The amount of said permitted increase shall be rounded to the nearest one-tenth of one percent. In the event that the CPI decreases, no increase or decrease in rents shall be authorized pursuant to this section.

However, in no case shall the annual general adjustment exceed four percent.

- C. Banking. Rent increases allowed under this section may be accumulated and implemented by the landlord at any future time.
- D. Preconditions to the right to take annual general adjustments. A landlord who is not in compliance with any of the provisions of this chapter shall not demand, accept or retain the annual rent increase otherwise permitted by this section.

- 2. He/she has failed to comply substantially with the city health and building codes, and/or any applicable state or local housing, health and safety codes.

(Ord. 658 § 2, 2000; Ord. 612 § 3, 1996; Ord. 607, 1995; Ord. 599 § 4, 1994; Ord. 494 § 5, 1987)

9.70.055 Limits to annual general adjustment formula.

In the event the vacancy control provision in section 9.70.042, or the prospective homeowner rights in section 9.70.044 is (are) invalidated in any way or by any authority, then the following section shall be enforced: section 9.70.050. Annual general adjustment formula will revert to seventy-five percent of the CPI with a four percent cap.
(Ord. 612 § 3, 1996)

9.70.060 Individual adjustment of ceiling on allowable rents.

Any landlord or homeowner/resident can appeal for an individual adjustment of the maximum allowable rent.

- A. Substantive grounds for rent adjustment applied for by landlords. A rent adjustment shall be approved in order to provide a just and reasonable return and maintain net operating income in accordance with the following criteria:
 - 1. Fair net operating income. Fair return applications shall be considered according to the following guidelines:

- a. Net operating income equals gross income minus operating expenses.
- b. Gross income equals the following:
 - (i) Gross rents, computed as gross rental income at one hundred percent occupancy; plus
 - (ii) Interest from security and cleaning deposits (except to the extent that said interest is payable to the homeowners/residents); plus
 - (iii) Income from services, garage and parking fees; plus
 - (iv) All other income or consideration received or receivable for or in connection with the use or occupancy of rental spaces and housing services; minus
 - (v) Uncollected rents due to vacancy and bad debts to the extent the same are beyond the landlord's control. Uncollected rents in excess of three percent of gross rents shall be presumed to be unreasonable unless established otherwise.
- c. Operating expenses-inclusions: Operating expenses shall include the following: license fees, real property taxes, utility costs, insurance, maintenance, management expenses (contracted or owner performed), including necessary and reasonable advertising, accounting, other managerial expenses, normal repair and maintenance expenses, allowable legal expenses, and the amortized cost of capital improvements. Management expenses are presumed to be six percent of gross income, unless established otherwise.

Owner-performed labor shall be counted at reasonable rates as established by board regulation.

Building improvements, major repairs, replacement and maintenance subject to the condition that said expenses shall be amortized in accordance with board regulations, except to the extent such costs are compensated by insurance proceeds.

- d. Excluded from operating expenses. Operating expenses shall not include: avoidable and unnecessary expense increases since the base year, mortgage interest and principal payments, fees, penalties and interest awarded for violation of this or any other law, or legal fees except as provided in this subsection and depreciation of the property.

Allowable legal expenses shall include attorney's fees and costs incurred in connection with successful good faith attempts to recover rents owing and successful good faith unlawful detainer actions not in violation of applicable law, to the extent the same are not recovered from homeowners/residents. Attorney's fees and costs incurred in proceedings before the board, or in connection with civil actions against the board, are not allowed as operating expenses.

- e. Base year for the purpose of this section shall be 1985.
- f. Presumption of fair base year net operating income. Except as provided in subparagraph g., it shall be presumed that the net operating income produced by the property during the base year provided a fair return (fair net operating income). Landlords shall be entitled to earn a just and reasonable return and to maintain and increase their base year net operating income in accordance with subparagraph h. herein.
- g. Rebutting the presumption. It may be determined that the base year net operating income yielded other than a fair return, in which case, the base year net operating income may be adjusted accordingly. In order to make such a determination, the board must make at least one of the following findings:
 - (i) The landlord's operating and maintenance expenses in the base year were unusually high or low in comparison to other years. In such instances, adjustments may be made in calculating such expenses so that the base year operating expenses reflect average expenses for the property over a reasonable period of time. In considering whether the base year net operating income yielded more or less than a fair net operating income, the board shall consider the following factors:
 - (a) The landlord made substantial capital improvements during the base year, which were not reflected in the base year rent levels;

- (b) Substantial repairs were made due to damage caused by uninsured disaster or vandalism;
 - (c) Maintenance and repair were below accepted standards so as to cause significant deterioration of housing services;
 - (d) Other expenses were unreasonably high or low notwithstanding prudent business practice.
- (ii) The rent on the base date was disproportionately low due to the fact that it was not established in an arms-length transaction or other peculiar circumstances.
- h. Fair net operating income. The board shall permit rent increases in rent such that the landlord's net operating income shall be increased by sixty percent of the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index over the base year. (For example, if the CPI has increased by ten percent since the base year, the landlord shall be entitled to a net operating income which is six percent above the base year level.) Unless the board selects a base period other than the year 1985, the base year CPI shall be the CPI for June 1, 1985. For the purposes of this section, the current CPI shall be the CPI last reported as of the date of the application. A rent increase granted pursuant to this section shall not exceed the increase requested in the application.

B. Substantive grounds for rent adjustment applied for by homeowners/residents.

1. Grounds for application. A homeowner/ resident or group of homeowners/residents may file a rent adjustment application for one or more rental spaces in the same rental complex on the ground that:
 - a. There has been a discontinuance or substantial reduction of housing service to homeowners/residents without a corresponding reduction in rent.
 - b. The landlord has accepted and retained rent in excess of that permitted by this chapter.

(Ord. 607, 1995: Ord. 494 § 6, 1987)

9.70.062 Rental adjustment allowed for capital improvement, procedure for granting.

The rental appeals board is authorized to establish rules and regulations defining a capital improvement, determining the amortization period allowed for the recovery of the capital improvement, determining a reasonable rate of return on the capital improvement, determining the impact of a capital improvement on rent once the cost of the capital improvement has been fully recovered, and any other factor or criteria relevant to such determinations.

(Ord. 599 § 2, 1994)

9.70.070 Individual rent adjustment hearings.

A. Petitions. No such individual rent adjustment shall be granted until after the consideration of the petition at an individual rent adjustment hearing. The board may delegate its powers to hold such hearings or to rule on such petitions, or both, to staff hearing examiners or panels of board members, and the board may reserve to itself the power to hear appeals of the decisions and orders of hearing officers or board panels. Final decisions on such petitions and appeals must be made within reasonable deadlines established by the board.

B. Notice. The board shall notify the landlord, if the petition was filed by the homeowner/ resident; or the homeowner/resident, if the petition was filed by the landlord, of the receipt of such a petition. The board shall notify both parties as to the time, date and place of the hearing. Hearings shall be scheduled for times most convenient for all parties, including evenings and weekends. Hearings may be postponed or continued for good cause, provided that all parties receive timely notice of such action.

C. Records. The board may require either party to a rent and adjustment hearing to provide it with all pertinent books, records and papers. Such documents shall be made available to the parties involved prior to the hearing at the office of the rent appeals board. The board shall conduct a building inspection and/or request the city to conduct an inspection if the board and/or hearing examiner find good cause to believe the board's current information does not reflect the current condition of the controlled rental space. The homeowner/resident may request the board or hearing examiner to order such an inspection prior to the date of the hearing. All documents required under this section shall be made available to the parties involved prior to the hearing at the office of the rent appeals board. In cases where information filed in a petition for rent ceiling adjustment, or in additional submissions filed at the request of the board and/or hearing examiners, is adequate or false, no action shall be taken in the petition until the deficiency is remedied.

D. Open hearings. All rent ceiling adjustment hearings shall be open to the public.

E. Right of assistance. All parties to a hearing may have assistance in presenting evidence and developing their position from attorneys, legal workers, homeowner/resident union representatives, or any other persons designated by such parties.

F. Hearing record. The board shall make available for inspection a copy of the official record, which shall constitute the exclusive record for the decision on issues at the hearing. The record of the hearing, or any part of one, shall be obtainable for the cost of copying. The record of the hearing shall include:

1. All exhibits, papers and documents required to be filed or accepted into evidence during the proceeding;
2. A list of participants present;

7. All recommended decisions, orders or rulings;
8. All final decisions and/or orders of hearing examiners and/or panels of board members and/or the board; and
9. Each final decision, order or ruling.

G. Hearing decision. No individual rent adjustment shall be granted unless supported by the preponderance of the evidence submitted at the hearing. All parties to a hearing shall be sent a notice of the decision and a copy of the findings of fact and law upon which the decision is based. At the same time, parties to the proceedings shall also be notified of their rights to an administrative appeal, if allowed by the board, and to judicial review of the decision pursuant to section 9.70.100 of this chapter.

H. Consolidation.

I. Inadequate or false information. If information filed in a petition for an individual rent adjustment or any additional submissions filed at the request of the board is inadequate or false, no action shall be taken on the petition until the deficiency is remedied.
